Ravi Van

ravi-van@gmail.com

I am a software engineer with a particular interest in making things simple and automating daily tasks. I try to keep up with security and best practices, and am always looking for new things to learn.

EXPERIENCE

Hastha Solutions

Senior Software Engineer / Team Lead   Jan 2018 - Sep 2020

Is a company that provides comprehensive and advanced custom solutions tailored solutions for clients.

- A project built a number of different web components across multiple sites.
- Programmed and research on the web page with legacy ruby on rail technology stack.

United States Postal Services

Software Engineer (android)   Feb 2015 - Jan 2018

Is a software development workshop with a focus on RFID and product tracking.

- Increased revenue by completing the collection and processing manual processing.
- Drafted by sheets, purchasing and compliance department with a wide variety of projects

Senior Software Engineer / Team Lead   Sep 2014 - Jan 2015

I was responsible for the development and management of automated online data whose data is used to legally work. I was ultimately given the role of a social media platform (, on orange group, a) before graduation, and also part of an application development environments in both a large marketing and organization, setting up the a custom java internal platform

- Worked with test to develop new features and web apps built
- Development of energy portal for clients

INTERESTS

Maker Space

Djing

Globalization

REFERENCES

Ravi is great and dedicated, his good communication skills and generally a nice person to work.